Important Tax Information

U.S. federal income tax law may require the withholding of 24% of the amount of any payments to holders who have failed to furnish a taxpayer identification number. To avoid such backup withholding, each holder may need to provide its withholding agent with a correct taxpayer identification number (generally the holder’s social security number or federal employer identification number) on a duly completed U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 or the applicable Form W-8 (available at <http://www.irs.gov>), as relevant, or otherwise establish an exemption from backup withholding.
